

About Living Well Church

We believe God is the source of life and all truth, and that we were lovingly created to live in relationship with him through Jesus. We believe the Bible is the Word of God and offers help and healing to people in every area of life including the spiritual, physical, emotional, mental, and relational. We believe that all truth is God's truth, and value relationships with all people including Agnostics, Atheists, adherents of non-Christian faiths, and followers of Jesus. We believe the church is people, not property. Currently we meet in a mini-mall in downtown Dixon, Illinois and have an active online community. We started September 11th 2005 in a hotel conference room, then moved to a movie theater for about 3-1/2 years. We have been in our current location for the last 4 years. We do not claim the space we meet in as "ours" or "sacred", but rather see it as a neutral place we share with our community. We encourage you toward the life changing power of knowing Jesus and toward discovery of the joy in being a catalyst of His help and healing in the lives of others.

What we do: Lead in the discovery and application of God's truth or every area of life.

Someone 'with skin on'

My 3-year-old nephew was having a hard time falling asleep at Grandma's house, so my mom lay down beside him for a while. As she started to ease out of the room, his eyes flew open. “You're safe,” she reminded him. “Jesus is always with you.”

“I know, Grandma,” he protested, “but I want someone with skin on!”

That reminded me of a quote by theologian Frederick Buechner: “Compassion is the sometimes fatal capacity for feeling what it is like to live inside somebody else's skin.” God came to us as Jesus — someone “with skin on” — so we would know he understands what it's like to live inside our skin. Now as Jesus' body in the world, we're often called on to be someone “with skin on” to others. Indeed, we're to show them such compassion that we could just as well be wearing their skin.
