

About Living Well Church

We believe God is the source of life and all truth, and that we were lovingly created to live in relationship with him through Jesus. We believe the Bible is the Word of God and offers help and healing to people in every area of life including the spiritual, physical, emotional, mental, and relational. We believe that all truth is God's truth, and value relationships with all people including Agnostics, Atheists, adherents of non-Christian faiths, and followers of Jesus. We believe the church is people, not property. Currently we meet in a mini-mall in downtown Dixon, Illinois and have an active online community. We started September 11th 2005 in a hotel conference room, then moved to a movie theater for about 3-1/2 years. We have been in our current location for the last 4 years. We do not claim the space we meet in as "ours" or "sacred", but rather see it as a neutral place we share with our community. We encourage you toward the life changing power of knowing Jesus and toward discovery of the joy in being a catalyst of His help and healing in the lives of others.

What we do: Lead in the discovery and application of God's truth or every area of life.

St. James, the Apostle

4

James, son of Zebedee, the first of Jesus' disciples to be martyred, is commemorated on July 25. Killed by sword on the order of King Herod around 44 A.D., James is the only apostle whose martyrdom is recorded in Scripture. Scholars believe he wasn't the author of the New Testament book of James.

Jesus called James, James' brother John and their fishing partner Simon to take up "catching people" (Luke 5:1-11). They soon formed Jesus' inner circle, the only disciples Jesus took along when he was transfigured, when he prayed in Gethsemane and at certain other times.

Jesus dubbed James and John "Sons of Thunder"; did they perhaps have anger-management problems? And the brothers asked Jesus for special status in his coming kingdom, winning themselves no favor with the other disciples. But James' imperfections remind us that God always chooses flawed people — including you and me — to carry out his work!

"Ah, summer, what power you have to make us suffer and like it."

Be not afraid to pray; to pray is right;
Pray if thou canst with hope, but ever pray,
Though hope be weak or sick with long delay;
Pray in the darkness if there be no light;
And if for any wish thou daren't pray
Then pray to God to cast that wish away.
