

We believe God is the source of life and all truth, and that we were lovingly created to live in relationship with him through Jesus. We believe the Bible is the Word of God and offers help and healing to people in every area of life including the spiritual, physical, emotional, mental, and relational. We believe that all truth is God's truth, and value relationships with all people including Agnostics, Atheists, adherents of non-Christian faiths, and followers of Jesus. We believe the church is people, not property. Currently we meet in a mini-mall in downtown Dixon, Illinois and have an active online community. We started September 11th 2005 in a hotel conference room, then moved to a movie theater for about 3-1/2 years. We have been in our current location for the last 5 years. We do not claim the space we meet in as "ours" or "sacred", but rather see it as a neutral place we share with our community. We encourage you toward the life changing power of knowing Jesus and toward discovery of the joy in being a catalyst of His help and healing in the lives of others.

What we do: Lead in the discovery and application of God's truth in every area of life.

Feed My Sheep

4

When Katie Davis traveled to Uganda in 2006 to do missions work during her senior year of high school, she didn't expect to fall in love with the people and culture. She also didn't expect to return after graduation — or to adopt 13 orphans within a few years.

Davis, who details her adventures in Kisses From Katie (Howard Books), helps bring food, medical care, education and Jesus' love to hundreds of children while raising her 13 daughters. Yet she insists she's not particularly brave or strong. "I'm just doing what God called me to do as a follower of him," Davis says. "Feed his sheep, do unto the least of his people."

Although she's been exposed to diseases and deplorable conditions in Uganda, Davis willingly accepts the risks. "I'm much more terrified of living a comfortable life in a self-serving society and failing to follow Jesus than I am of any illness or tragedy," she writes. "I have yet to find where [Jesus] warned us to be safe."

"Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter."

—Martin Luther King Jr.

Things to Put on Your Calendar

- January 17th there will be a presentation of the work of the Nominating Committee.
- February 7th we will hold our Church elections
- We are going to have a Baptism on February 28th. If you are interested in being Baptized contact Pastor Trotter.
- District Assembly 2016 will be held April 8-9 at Pekin First Church of the Nazarene. This is a great experience. Especially seeing the new Pastors being ordained.
- ConventionPalooza 2016 will be held April 30th at Pekin First Church of the Nazarene. This is a great opportunity to network with those on the District who serve in the same Ministries you do.

A Good Start

He who fritters away the early morning, its opportunity and freshness, in other pursuits than seeking God will make poor headway seeking him the rest of the day. If God is not first in our thoughts and efforts in the morning, he will be in the last place the remainder of the day.

—E.M. Bounds

A Rib Tickler

After her husband was out late for a few nights, Eve was upset. "Are you out with other women?" she asked.

"Don't be unreasonable," replied Adam. "You're the only woman on earth."

The quarrel ended when Adam fell asleep.

When he awakened with pokes to the chest, he asked, "What are you doing?"

"Counting your ribs!" Eve said.
