

We believe God is the source of life and all truth, and that we were lovingly created to live in relationship with him through Jesus. We believe the Bible is the Word of God and offers help and healing to people in every area of life including the spiritual, physical, emotional, mental, and relational. We believe that all truth is God's truth, and value relationships with all people including Agnostics, Atheists, adherents of non-Christian faiths, and followers of Jesus. We believe the church is people, not property. Currently we meet in a mini-mall in downtown Dixon, Illinois and have an active online community. We started September 11th 2005 in a hotel conference room, then moved to a movie theater for about 3-1/2 years. We have been in our current location for the last 6 years. We do not claim the space we meet in as "ours" or "sacred", but rather see it as a neutral place we share with our community. We encourage you toward the life changing power of knowing Jesus and toward discovery of the joy in being a catalyst of His help and healing in the lives of others.

What we do: Lead in the discovery and application of God's truth in every area of life.

Welcome! We extend a special welcome to you today on this Easter Sunday! If you are worshiping with us this morning for the first time and you are looking for/praying for the Lord to lead you to a church you can call home, I would like to invite you to pray about considering making Living Well Church your church home. As a church we joyfully declare on the authority of the Word of God that when we invite Jesus into our lives He brings hope, help and healing to every area of our lives. On the back of your bulletin you can read a little more about who we are as a church. We want you to know you are welcome here and we are so glad you chose to worship God here with us today.

Pastor John

The King

Sometimes we speak or shout the truth without realizing just how right we are. That happened during Holy Week, first when Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey. The palm-waving crowd hailed Jesus as their king — though he wasn't the earthly king they wanted.

Days later, during Jesus' trial, Pilate taunted the Pharisees, saying, "Here is your king." Furious, they protested, "We have no king but Caesar." Pilate turned Jesus over to them. But still wanting to needle the insistent persecutors, he wrote a sign reading "The King of the Jews" and had it fastened above Jesus' cross (John 19:19).

Was Jesus a king? Witnesses of the Resurrection thought so. The first Christians were accused of "saying there is another king, Jesus" (Acts 17:7). The writer of Revelation envisions the day when the whole world will understand that the risen Christ isn't only Lord and Savior but also "Lord of lords and King of kings" (Revelation 17:14).

Next Sunday at 9:30 we will be starting a new adult small group series called "Acts of God."

This series deals with the Problem of Pain in life and helps us process the deep questions that arise within us about God and life as we seek to reconcile the problem of pain with our understanding of a God who is love.

Pain comes in all kinds of packages, physical, emotional, relational, mental, addictions etc. I want to invite you to explore the problem of pain with this video series that tells a story while it shares the truth of God in his word. Next Sunday at 9:30 running for 6 weeks

The Easter message tells us that our enemies — sin, the curse and death — are beaten. Ultimately they can no longer start mischief. They still behave as though the game were not decided, the battle not fought; we must still reckon with them, but fundamentally we must cease to fear them anymore.

—Karl Barth, Dogmatics in Outline
