

About Living Well Church

We believe God is the source of life and all truth and that we were lovingly created to live in relationship with Him. We believe the Bible is the Word of God and offers help and healing to people in every area of life including the spiritual, physical, emotional, mental and relational. We believe that all truth is God's truth and value relationships with all people including Agnostics, Atheists, adherents of non Christian faiths and followers of Jesus. We believe the church is people not property. Currently we meet in the former Ames Furniture Building downtown Dixon IL., and have an active online community. We started Sept .11th 2005 in a hotel conference room, have held services in a movie theater, a cafe and have now moved to our current location in June of 2016. We do not claim the space we meet in as "ours" or "sacred" but rather see it as a neutral place we share with our community. We encourage you toward the life changing power of knowing Jesus and to experiencing the joy of being a catalyst of His help and healing in the lives of others.

What we do: Living Well Church exists to lead in the discovery and application of God's truth for every area of life. Seeking to live out the value God places on relationships in practical ways, we provide our community space for life skills training, relationship building, and spiritual development.

World Week of Prayer

Nazarenes around the world will commit to spending more time in prayer the week of February 24 through March 2.

The loitering feelings of division at home and around the world give us much reason to pray for our country, her leaders and decision makers, and her people, as well as other countries, their leaders and decision makers. Daily emphasis to help us get started are:

Sunday, Feb. 24th - General Prayers in Challenging Times

Monday, Feb. 25th - Political Challenges

Tuesday, Feb. 26th - Economic Challenges

Wednesday, Feb. 27th - Social Challenges

Thursday, Feb 28th - Religious Challenges

Friday, Mar. 1 - Praises and Prayers for Creative Access and Secure Areas

Saturday, March 2nd - Covenant of Prayer for the Year Ahead

Will you commit to pray throughout the week, remembering that God is present and active in our world, and in prayer we are joining with Him in His redemptive purposes? Pray faithfully! Pray passionately!

“Love has nothing to do with what you are expecting to get, it’s what you are expected to give — which is everything.”

—Vittorio Alfieri

Goals for Families with Children

- 1) We will strive to assist parents in “Training children in the way they should go.” Proverbs 22:6. We recognize that the religious training of children is primarily the responsibility of their parents; therefore we will work to provide parents with needed resources to teach their children.
- 2) We will strive to provide a curriculum that will help our children to have the Biblical foundation and understanding that will help them make wise choices and early accept Christ as Lord and Savior. (Deuteronomy 6) We will have organized teaching goals. Our teaching will give children an understanding of the stories and teaching of the entire Bible. We will also provide opportunities for children and parents to learn together. Our lessons will also include discipleship training and the work of the Church of the Nazarene around the world.
- 3) We will strive to prepare children to assume leadership of the church. Our church is only as strong as the leadership team and the teams reliance of the guidance of the Holy Spirit, therefore we will provide them the opportunity to serve others, the opportunity to minister in the community, the opportunity to serve the body of believes. We will teach them about having devotions, giving to the church, prayer and the use of their Bibles.
- 4) We will use NazSafe guidelines to keep our children safe while in our care. This includes safe facilities, carefully screened workers and a clear communication structure between the church and the parents.

Loved and Known

“Jesus knows me, this I love,” read the church sign. That twist on the classic children’s song emphasizes the importance of being both loved and known. “It’s not one or the other; it’s hard truth and ridiculous grace,” sings contemporary Christian artist Tauren Wells in “Known.”

Timothy Keller, in The Meaning of Marriage, describes the duality this way: “To be loved but not known is comforting but superficial. To be known and not loved is our greatest fear. But to be fully known and truly loved is, well, a lot like being loved by God. It is what we need more than anything. It liberates us from pretense, humbles us out of our self-righteousness, and fortifies us for any difficulty life can throw at us.”

You have searched me, Lord, and you know me. Psalm 139:1 (NIV)
